Local Support

The WST team extends far beyond the office walls with key partners viewed as extra members of the team. Our local agents are experts in their destinations and know their hotels, museums and streets like the back of their hands.

"Local agent Josina was an absolute treasure! She elevated our trip from a good, to fantastic, with her excellent local knowledge, contacts, and willingness to make arrangements for a large group at short notice."

Honley High School, Barcelona

Guide Services

Our local guides can stay with you throughout or just at key times of the day. We would highly recommend a guided walking tour to help you find your way around from the start of your trip. Like us our guides are passionate, knowledgeable and most of all can bring the subject to life for students and teachers.

"Maitland's knowledge of street art was exceptional, she was very professional and incredibly engaging. The pupils were in awe! Truly the highlight of the trip."

St James School, London

Flight tours meet & greet

In the UK we are on hand from check in through to boarding. On your return we are there as you disembark - supporting you through customs, immigration and onto your homeward coach journey.

In resort our partner will be waiting as you exit passport control holding a sign featuring your school name. They will help you as you check in to your accommodation.

"Alex was excellent, he was there at the airport for us and made sure our experience was as smooth as it could be."

St Mary's College, New York

NICHOLA'S EXPERT TIP

Our local representatives in resort are a font of knowledge. The journey to your hotel is a great opportunity for you to pick their brains about local customs and hidden gems.
